Therefore, we commit to being supportive, empowering and responsive.

At the heart of Lutheran Education,
it's our people who truly shine

What Opportunities are Available in Lutheran Education?

There have been Lutheran schools in Australia since 1839, and currently there are schools and early childhood services (ECS) in all states of Australia and in the Northern Territory.

We provide education from Early Childhood to Year 12, employing both general and specialist teachers.

School and ECS enrolments in Victoria, New South Wales and Tasmania are growing and there is an ongoing need for committed and qualified teachers who actively support the ethos and culture of Lutheran education.

Lutheran schools and ECSs:

- Provide an excellent education across a wide curriculum
- Serve students, parents, the church, the community and the government by providing a quality education for the whole person
- Equip students for a life of service to their communities.

We provide opportunities for lifelong career options, empowering employees with the freedom to make choices aligned with their personal needs and achieve their career aspirations

We cultivate a growth focused culture through deep listening, engaging with respect and ongoing/continuous learning

What Qualifications do I need to Teach in Lutheran Education?

Qualifications to teach in Lutheran education include:

- Completing the appropriate state qualifications and registration

In schools (only)

- Completing requirements for accreditation as a teacher in a Lutheran school during your first three years of working in a Lutheran school (offered as professional learning by the school)

All staff in Lutheran schools and ECSs are expected to uphold the ethos and culture of that School or ECS.

Why Should I Consider Teaching in a Lutheran School or ECS?

- The opportunity to be involved in the personal growth and development of young people and to make a positive difference to their lives
- The opportunity to use and to develop your personal gifts in serving others
- Lutheran schools and ECSs provide teachers with a sense of belonging to a community that values, encourages and supports everyone in that community
- The Lutheran system is growing and offers opportunities for personal and professional growth and for leadership
- Teachers in a Lutheran school or ECS have a common purpose to educate others in the knowledge of God and of the world
- The schools share a common faith and consistent values, yet offer a diverse variety of professional experiences
- Pay is comparable with other education systems and with similar professions
- Employment conditions are good – leave entitlements, superannuation, years of service are transferable between schools

We prioritise empathy, care and connection in the workplace to foster restorative relationship and enhanced wellbeing in line with future work models

Join the Team and Make a Difference!

Lutheran schools and ECSs in Victoria, New South Wales and Tasmania (LEVNT) are part of a bigger system of Lutheran schools and ECSs throughout Australia (Lutheran Education Australia).

Schools and ECSs in LEVNT have strength in working collaboratively in many areas including innovative teaching and learning and networking of like groups.

Schools and ECSs are located in urban and rural communities and offer a variety of teaching and community experiences.
